

LEGO Engineering

What is the NXT-G Math block for?

The 'Math' block (located in the 'Advanced' section in the 'complete palette' tab on the left side of the screen) is used to carry out mathematical operations on inputs.

You can select the desired operation from the drop down menu, and the two operands can be manually typed in or wired into the block.

<http://www.legoengineering.com/knowledgemanager/questions/195/>